Bike Riders at the Kings and Queens Video Shoot

This Week - 10/14/2009

Thank you so much to all the riders for coming out and joining us for the shoot. Your spirit, individuality and amazing community made this an unforgettable experience. The images we have seen so far are beyond amazing and that is all because of your participation.

We were blown away by the amount of people who showed up to join us. Positive attitudes, creative contributions, and good old fun prevailed.

From the very first ride over the bridge into downtown we knew we were in for an adventure. Taking over the streets, flying over the hill down into Santa Monica Pier, and owning Hollywood Blvd. were all incredible experiences. We were glad to have shared them with this wonderful group of people and their amazing bikes.

Can't wait to see you out there on the next ride.

Book of the Week

The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins by Dr. Seuss was published in 1938. The story begins when King Derwin is riding through a street past Bartholomew Cubbins, a poor boy in the market. Bartholomew removes his hat, according to the laws, but another hat mysteriously appears; when he attempts to remove this one too, another one appears again, and this continues, even as he removes more and more hats.

Movie of the Week

The National Parks: America's Best Idea by Ken Burns is the story of an idea as uniquely American as the Declaration of Independence and just as radical: that the most special places in the nation should be preserved, not for royalty or the rich, but for everyone.

Album of the Week

'Passion'

Peter Gabriel's remarkable musical collage for Scorsese's 'The Last Temptation of Christ', 1990 Grammy Award winner.
